

WEBINAR

Reporting on suicide and mental illness

with Rachel Green, Osher Günsberg & Dr Jaelea Skehan

Learn how to responsibly report on suicide and mental illness from the experts and those with lived experience, and understand the media's crucial role in reducing stigma.

This important MPC Masterclass webinar, moderated by multi-award winning ABC national medical reporter and mental health advocate Sophie Scott, will feature:

Rachel Green, CEO of national mental health support and advocacy organisation SANE. Rachel has expertise across the mental health, not-for-profit and government sectors including leading the establishment of the Australian National Mental Health Commission.

Osher Günsberg, SANE Ambassador and media personality with lived experience of mental illness. As one of Australia's most recognisable media personalities, Osher has been a guest in the living rooms of Australians for over 20 years. He is also author of the best-selling memoir Back, After the Break.

Dr Jaelea Skehan OAM, director of mental ill-health prevention organisation Everymind. A registered psychologist, Jaelea is passionate about finding better connections between research and practice and ensuring knowledge translation in suicide prevention policy and practice.
